

Date : 29 January 2019

Venue: Palazzo R, Strada 7, Via Gran S. Bernardo, 20089 Rozzano MI

Agenda:

09.30 – 10.00	Welcome and registration
10.00 – 11.00	ABRACADABRA project introduction and presentation of case studies on the use of adds-on and connected Financial lessons learnt  This session will present some multiple deep renovation projects in details out of the 7 real cases that have been surveyed in different cities in Europe and will described four different financing schemes that came out of the cases.
11.00–11.30	Presentation of the ABRACADABRA Policy Recommendations on financial models and Bankability  During this session, the already identified policy recommendations on financial models and bankability will be presented to the audience to be further discussed.
11.30 – 11.45	Coffee break
11.45-12.30	Knowledge exchange and reflections on case studies and proposed recommendations  The aim of this session is to engage a broad range of stakeholders and access and collect their feedback and recommendations to be fed back into the Abracadabra project. Discussion should focus on innovative financial models and the bankability of the AdoRES strategy . Information shall be gather to implement the Financial Model and the regulatory toolkits investigate how investment decision making schemes can be incorporate with the ABRACADABRA strategy. Each stakeholder group/representative is asked to list key/critical aspects to be included in the set of financial policy recommendations for each target group.
12.30 – 13.00	Wrap up and approval of the new set of financial policy recommendations
13.00 – 14.00	Light Lunch

