RINA Ranks Among the Top Three Global Renewable Energy Consulting Firms

Genoa, 27th February 2025 – RINA, an engineering consultancy, inspection and certification multinational group, reaffirms its position as one of the leading international consulting firms in the renewable energy sector. This recognition comes from Infralogic, one of the foremost online platforms providing data and analysis in the energy and infrastructure sectors, in its Global Renewables Advisors Ranking and Global Energy Transition and Renewables Advisors Ranking.

This year, RINA has secured third place in the Global Renewables Technical Advisors ranking, advancing six positions compared to the 2023 ranking. Additionally, Infralogic reports that RINA has climbed to sixth place in the Global Energy Transition Technical Advisors category, moving up three positions from the previous year.

Infralogic's rankings are based on the number of transactions completed in 2024 and assess consulting firms involved not only in technical aspects but also in commercial, regulatory, and environmental due diligence services.

Saverio Scopelliti, Commercial Executive Vice President of RINA, commented: "This significant recognition from Infralogic further strengthens our position as a global leader in the renewable energy sector. Our rise in the rankings is a testament to the trust our clients place in us. Our continued commitment to adopting innovative technologies and delivering advanced solutions enables us to be the strategic partner that companies seek for a more sustainable future."

RINA, leading certification and engineering company, provides a wide range of services across the Energy, Marine, Infrastructure & Mobility, Certification, Industry and Real Estate sectors. In December 2023, alongside the majority shareholder Registro Italiano Navale, Fondo Italiano d'Investimento SGR entered the shareholding structure guiding a pool of co-investors. With revenues in 2023 of 797 million euros, 5,800 employees and 200 offices in 70 countries worldwide, RINA is a member of key international organizations and an important contributor to the development of new legislative standards. www.rina.org
